INDEX COPY

Pursuant to subdivision (1) of section fifty-two hundred five of the Civil Practice Law and Rules, two thousand six hundred twenty five dollars of an account containing direct deposits or electronic payments reasonably identifiable as statutorily exempt payments, as defined in paragraph two of sub division (1) of section fifty-two hundred five of the Civil Practice Law Rules, is exempt from execution and that the garnishee cannot levy upon or restrain two thousand six hundred twenty five dollars in such account.

Further, pursuant to subdivision (1) of section fifty-two hundred twenty-two of the Civil Practice Law and Rules, an execution shall not apply to an amount equal to or less than ninety percent of the greater of two hundred forty times the federal minimum hourly wage prescribed in Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 or two hundred forty times the state minimum hourly wage prescribed in section six hundred fifty-two of the labor law as in effect at the time the earnings are payable, except such part as a court determines to be unnecessary for the reasonable requirements of the judgment debtor and his or her dependents.

APPENDIX A - REVISED

Notice of Judgment Debtor receiving income execution.

This Income Execution directs the withholding of up to 10% of the judgment debtor's gross income. In certain cases, however, State or Federal Law does not permit the withholding of that much of the Judgment Debtor's gross income. The Judgment Debtor is referred to New York Civil Practice Law and Rules Sect. 5231 and 15 United States Code Sect. 1671 et seq.

I. LIMITATIONS ON THE AMOUNT THAT CAN BE WITHHELD:

A. An Income Execution for installments from a Judgment Debtor's gross income cannot exceed ten percent (10%) of the Judgment Debtor's gross income.

B. If a judgment debtor's weekly disposable earnings are less than the greater of thirty (30) times the current federal minimum wage ($7.25 per hour or $217.50) or the New York State minimum wage ($8.00 per hour or $240.00) no deduction can be made from the judgment debtor's earnings under this income execution.

C. A judgment debtor's weekly disposable earnings cannot be reduced below the amount arrived at by multiplying thirty (30) times the greater of the federal minimum wage ($7.25 per hour or $217.50) or the New York State minimum wage ($8.00 per hour or $240.00) under this income execution.

D. If deductions are being made from a Judgment Debtor's earnings under any orders for Alimony, Support or Maintenance for family members or former spouses, and those deductions equal or exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of the Judgment Debtor's disposable earnings, no deduction can be made from the Judgment Debtor's earnings under this income execution.

E. If deductions are being made from a Judgment Debtor's earnings under any orders for Alimony, Support or Maintenance for family members or former spouses and those deductions are less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the Judgment Debtor's disposable earnings, deductions may be made from the Judgment Debtor's earnings under this income execution. However, the amount arrived at by adding the deductions from earnings made under this
